The Beginning of a New Decade

Prices, prices, prices. This word rang through the ears of every American. Washington School students joined in the effort against inflation. Greenville community watched our students as they began to work in various businesses around the community. Whether taking orders for hamburgers as Cindy Polson is doing (top left) or advertising for Reagan as Gerald Shepherd, Mac Bailey, Charles Shepherd and Carter Lack are doing (top center) or having Kristie Lunceford and Bart Borganelli pump the high price of gasoline (top right) or utilizing the Stradinger-Love Van Patrol in taking children to and from school (center left) or utilizing grocery stores that advertise specials as Robin Spikes and Alicia Ralston are doing — inflation continues and all of us must continue to do our part to beat the rising prices on every commodity.

Always in Motion

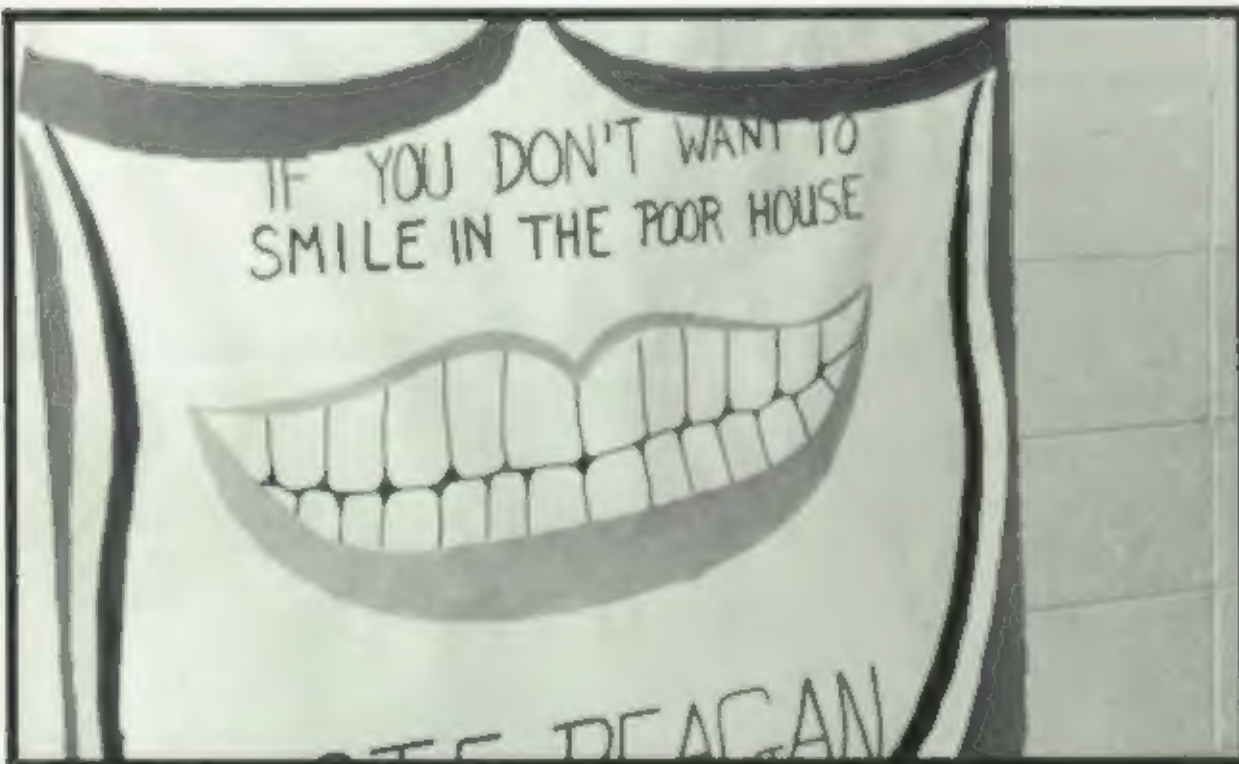

Greenville encompassed many changes throughout 1980-81, in several areas: construction of the new television station located near Washington School — WXVT, Channel 15, which is a CBS affiliate (top left); many students received jobs at the new station. (Center left) New housing projects became a popular sight as residents left their high-rise homes and moved into condominiums. The Bellewood Condominiums are the first condominiums located on Cypress Lane to appear in Greenville. During the summer Hope Enterprises, in conjunction with Greenville Lumber Company, employed several WS students in the construction. (Bottom left) Another very significant agricultural plant in Greenville is PIR-MI, Pacific International Rice Mills Inc. Many families were transferred from all parts of the United States to work at this industry; and many students were in the rice fields this summer. (Bottom right) Architect Joe Weilenman renovated the property near the C&G Railroad on Central and Main last year to incorporate a new restaurant and lounge for Greenville, as well as novelty shops known as Shotgun Row. This past year the General Store, a unique spice and herb shop, was added to the complex. This entire development boosted Greenville's economy and gave many jobs to WS students.

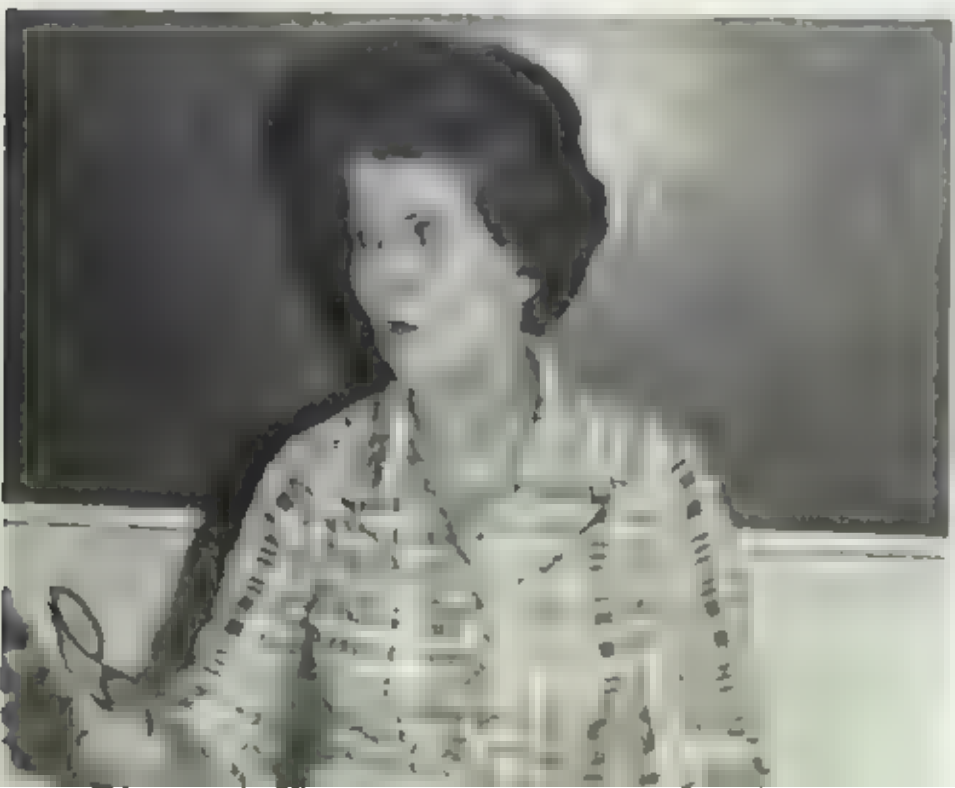

Changing With the Times

The '80's is definitely a decade of change and progress. For those at WS, the Carter-Reagan Campaign affected everyone during the first four academic months. (Top left) The Fifth Grade designed unique Presidential campaign posters advertising their favorite candidates. After a mock voting session in November sponsored by the WS Caucus, the Reaganites won a landslide victory. (Top right) Another example of change and progress occurred in November at the Washington School PTA meeting. The entire Fifth Grade presented a hillbilly musical comedy entitled KENTUCKY SUE. Amy Koonce, who played Tess Barton, enacts a scene from the play. (Bottom left) In addition to drama, the Booster Club provided another training room for all the athletes. Demonstrating the proper method to relieve a sore muscle is Trainer Steve Grubb with his victim Anthony Terracina. Looking in total disbelief is Bryant Rushing. (Bottom right) The blood drive at WS occupied the time of many students during December. Many classes were challenged with other schools in competition for the school who gave the most pints of blood. Miss Jane Henley, art teacher at WS, relaxes during a blood-donating session.

A First Grade Remembrance — Mrs. Iris Dickson Mitchell

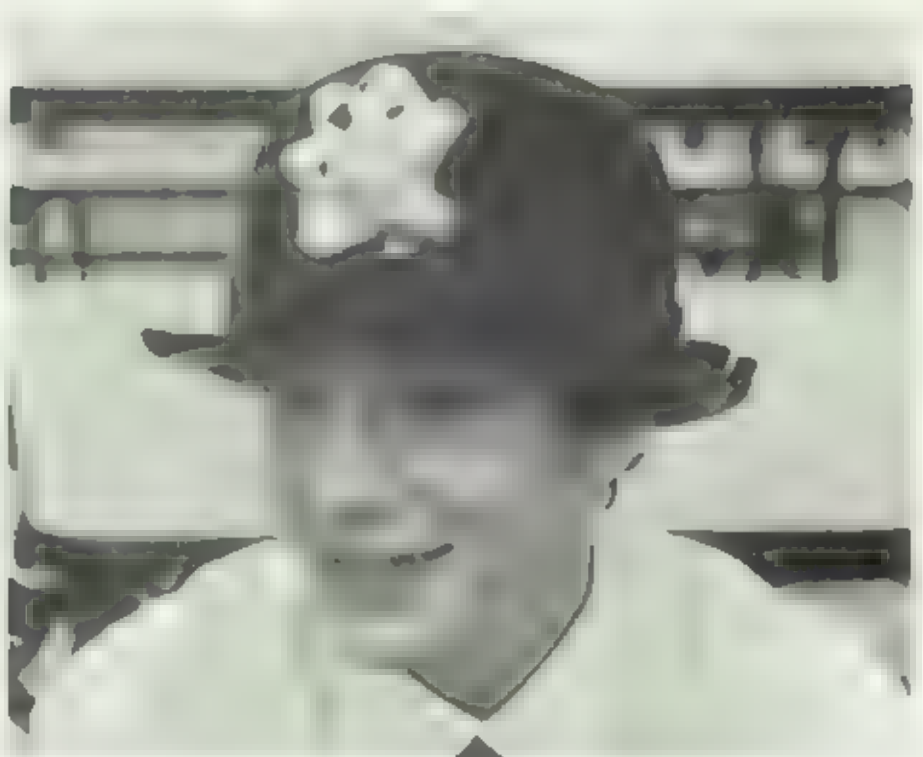

Reading, writing, and arithmetic are always intoned in those early elementary school years — applies for the teacher, phonics, playground activities, mix money, and Mrs. Iris Mitchell. All of these are a part of the daily routine of a first grade Washington School student. Mrs. Mitchell graduated from Woods Junior College and Delta State University. She began teaching in Clarksdale in 1949 and has since added to her interests arts and crafts, needlework, interior design, and is currently writing and illustrating children's books. Besides working with children at First Baptist Church, Mrs. Mitchell spends much time coordinating activities at the Delta Children's Museum. She believes that a successful teacher is willing to develop the individual student's talents and personalities. Each child is a special entity. Many of her former children are in Mississippi now to help in honoring Mrs. Iris Dickson Mitchell with the dedication of the 1981 SABRE.

Blast Into the 80's Homecoming 1980

With a dynamic score of 35-0 the WS Generals blasted their seasonal record into space. 1 Following the space theme of the 1980 Homecoming, the cheerleaders performed an entertaining skit. In this scene Martin Outzen and Stacy Green capture the queen, Susan Barnes, as Andy Solomon looks on. 2 The cheerleaders mimic the football players. 3 Our Student Council officers enjoy the luncheon, which they worked so diligently to present. 4 A group of hungry students enjoy their delicious luncheon.

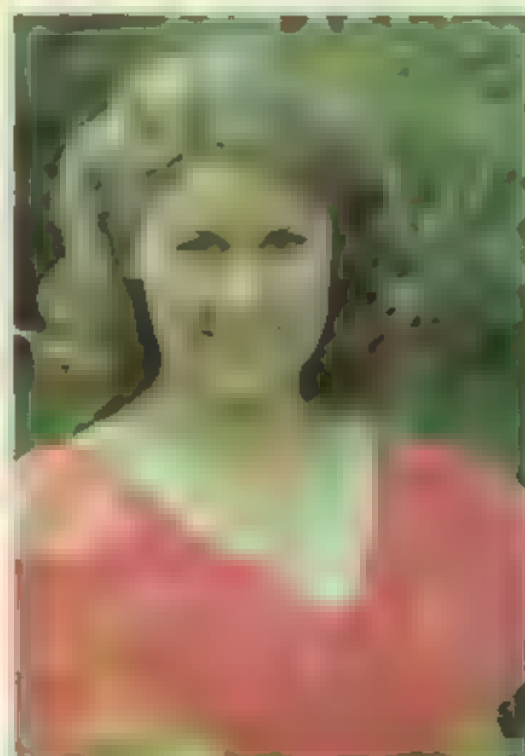

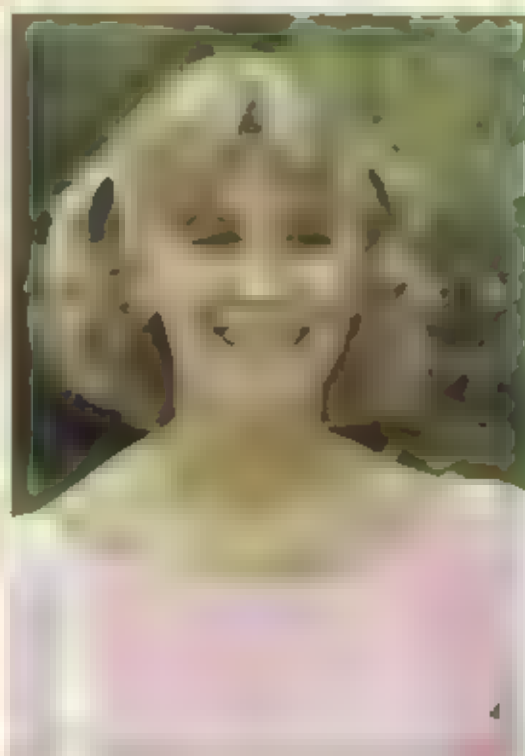

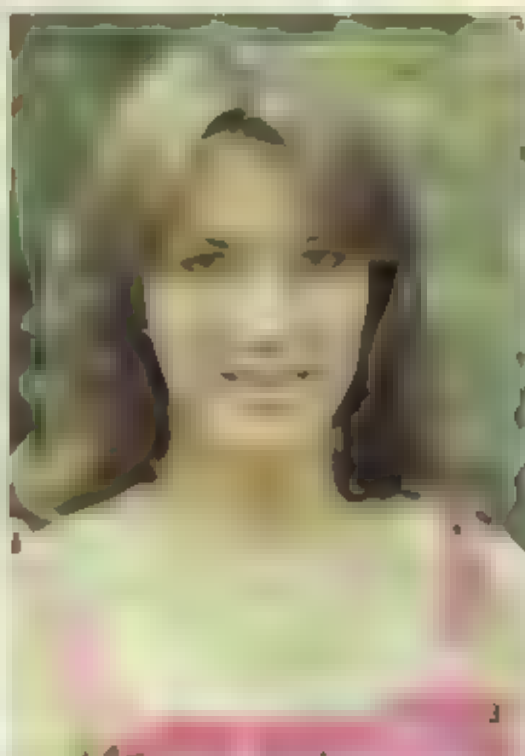

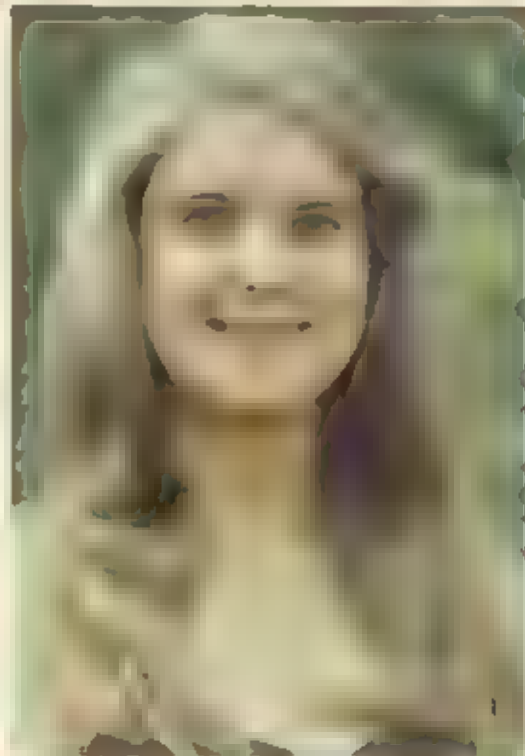

1 Our newly-organized singing group, The High Notes, performed for the first time at the Homecoming assembly. A few students took a short break from eating to sing for the assembly. Our homecoming funds enjoyed the luncheon which brought in four $100.00 donations.

"The Space Queens"

The 1980 Homecoming Court featured maids elected by the student body. The seniors: 1. Jani Camer; 2. Lori Nelson; the juniors: 3. Mary Anne Cawmaga; 4. Miriam Wells; the sophomores: 5. Mitche Abel; 6. Carey Vickery; the freshmen: 7. Garry Owens; 8. Chris Walker.

1. As the feeling of victory filled the air, Miss Kim Andrews became the 1980 Generals' Lady. 2. The 1980 Homecoming court: (sitting) Chris Walker and Ginny Brown; (standing) Mary Ann Gammage, Kim Andrews, Jan Garner, Lori Nelson, Minam Wells, and Mike Abe.

The Harvest Holiday of Fun

Best of all the 1996 Harvest Fair Festival was the Father's River Crow at the Night Light & Stars Hall. One activity of the festival involved patterning (making) on the river. Kids enjoyed shooting darts at the targets (3). The school made a large amount of money from the wheel of chance (4).

1981 Who's Who — Beauty Review — An Evening With Cartoon Characters

On February 2nd, 1981, the Sabre Staff hosted the 1981 Who's Who Beauty Review. Entertainment was provided by the WS Jazz Band, the Highlighters, and cartoon skits by the drama classes. Core DeLong was Emcee. Lower L (P. 30) Jonna Lack congratulates Sophomore winner Beth Newton. Lower R: Sophomore finalists — N. Abel, L. Alexander, B. Newton, C. Vickery, and M. Waller in formal attire. Bottom L: Lanier Alexander modeling casual attire. Bottom R: Senior finalists — K. Andrews, L. Ballard, P. Snipes, T. Tate, and B. Woollard. On P. 31 Top Junior finalists are L. Braddock, D. Ford, M. A. Gammage, I. Johnson, and M. Wells. Center: Freshmen finalists include L. Adams, S. Gillison, C. Owens, M. M. Patterson, and C. Waker. Bottom: Jonna Lack presents Mike Galatas and Merry Burleson with the Mr. and Miss Junior WS Award. Jeff Brantley and Kim Andrews won the Mr. and Miss WS honor, and Boyce Woollard looks approvingly.

You Can't Take It With

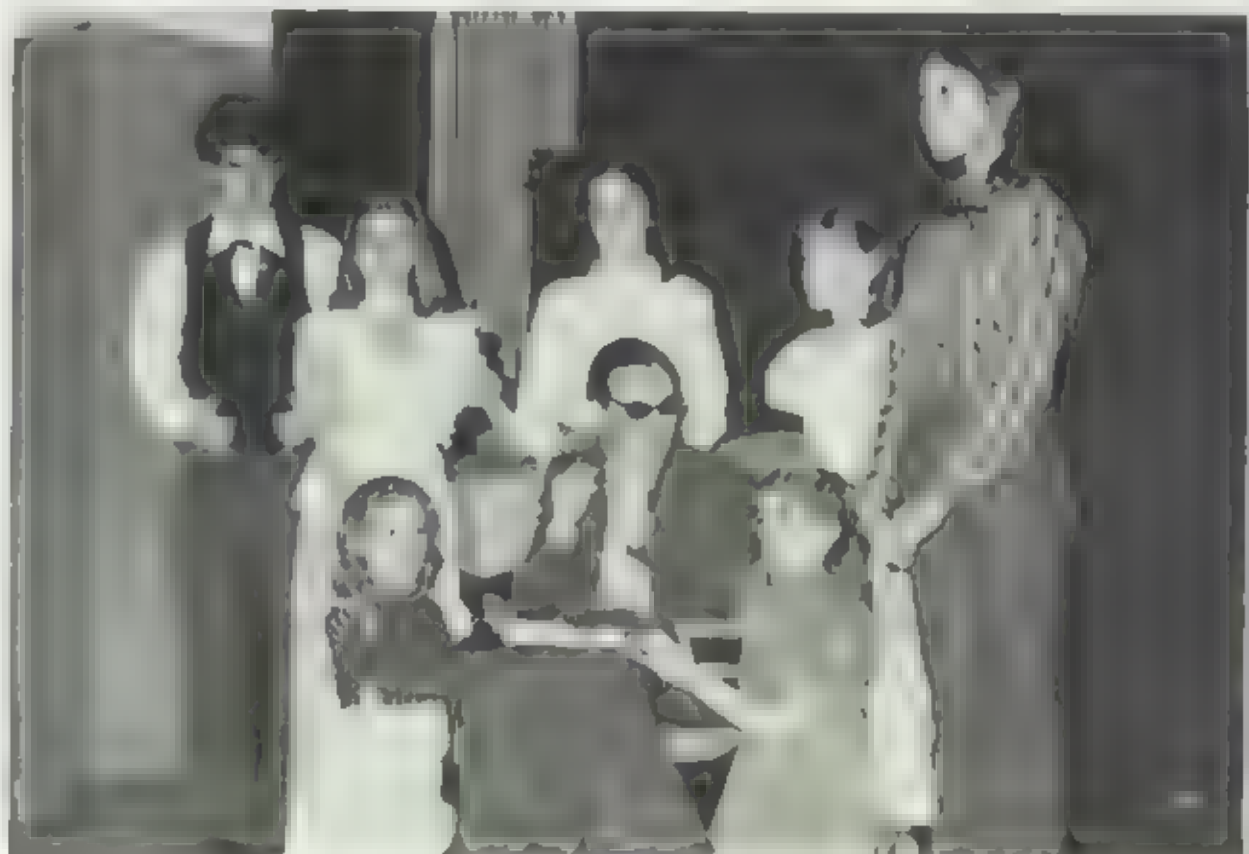

You

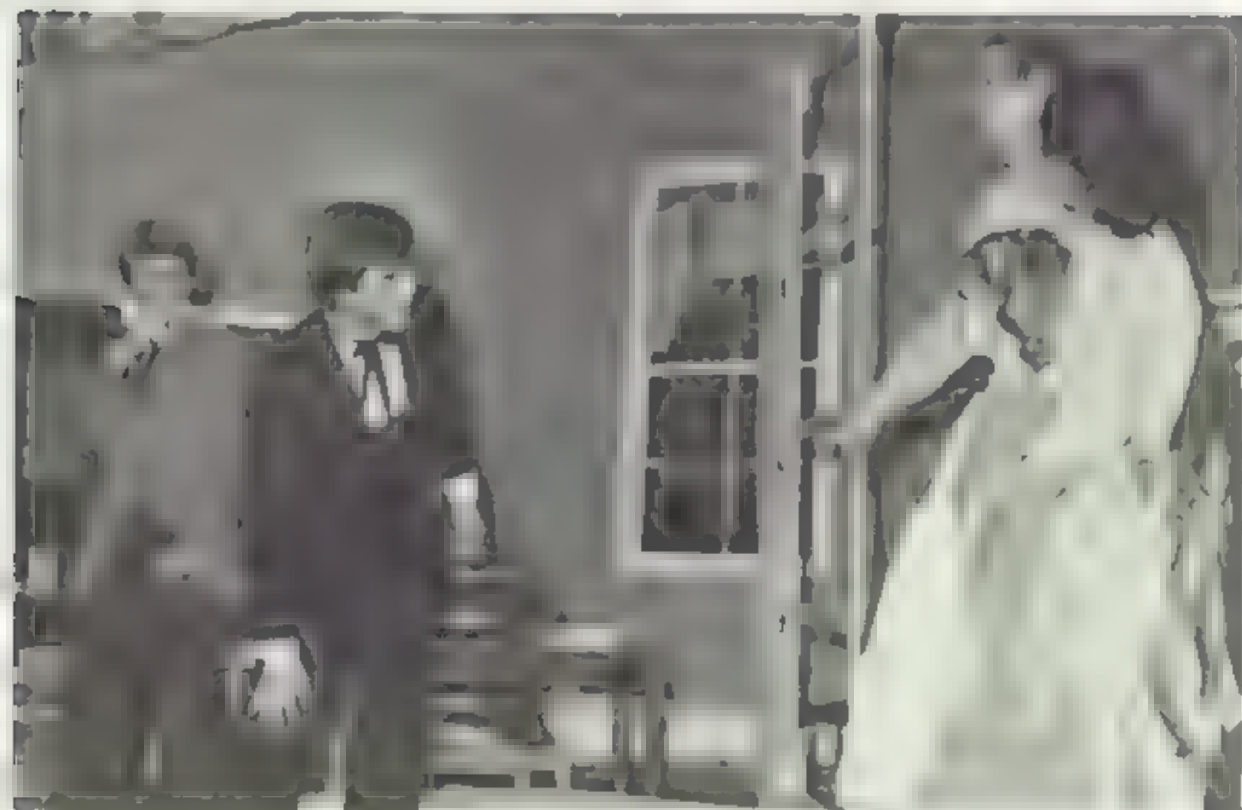

In an atmosphere of mystery, comedy, and suspense, Kaufman and Hart's play YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU was presented to WS on September 30-Oct 1st. On page 32, 1 The Kirbys and the Sycamore families finally unite during the dinner blessing. 2 Essie (Michelle Elkott) and Alice (Valerie Thomas) talk while the snobby Mrs Kirby (Susan Stark) grimaces. 3 Mrs Sycamore (Cindy Shackelford) reviews her ridiculous playwrights. 4 Grandfather (Chris Bailey) tells Madame Kolenkhov (Jess Bagby) and Donald (Bart Borganelli) about the feds. On page 33, 1 Donald hurdles all obstacles in his path in order to get to the market. 2 Madame Kolenkhov gives Mr Kirby (Jeff Gordon) a taste of wrestling as Tony (Bill Allen) looks horrified. 3 Gay Wellington (Lorraine Odom) drinks her way through the evening. 4 Essie, Ed (Kelly Miller), Paul (Cole DeLong), and Grandpa enjoy their game of "forget-me-not". 5 Madame Kolenkhov reveals to Grandpa that Essie's dancing stinks. 6 Paul enjoys "playing" with his toy. Directors were Mrs Sonva Bixler and Mrs Sarah Cook.

The Miracle Worker

What is a soul? No one knows... but we know it is not the body, and it is that part of us which thinks, and feels, and hopes. Annie Sullivan Extreme pathos could characterize the winter WS play directed by Mrs. Nancy Shurlds. THE MIRACLE WORKER. 1 Director Shurlds smiles with Assistant Mary I. Mazzanti. 2 Viney (Jodie Shailer) dusts the Keller home. 3 Mr. Keller (Cole DeLong) argues with Annie Sullivan (Jessica Bagby) over the proper way to treat Helen. 4 The blind girls (Charlyn Aldridge, Nanci Abel, Margaret Maxwell, Clair Greer, Susan Webb and Brenda Choo) present Annie with a going-away gift. Mr. Anagnos (Kelly Miller), the teacher at the blind school, looks in amazement (pix on p. 34). On page 35, 1 The Keller family, Mrs. Keller (Pat Snipes), James (Martin Outzen), and Mr. Keller are being served a quiet meal by Viney. 2 Helen (Stacy Hawkins) refuses to cooperate with her teacher. 3 Martha (Michelle Bigham) and Percy (Alan Grantham) were black workers at the house. 4 On the porch James snickers as Mr. Keller fell off the steps. 5 Annie tries to comfort Mrs. Keller about Helen's problems. 6 Mr. Keller debates with Annie on sending Helen to an institution.

WS Dinner Theatre — The Keeper of the Birds

The annual Sophomore Freshman Dinner Theatre produced Keeper of the Birds, a comedy-drama concerning Mr. Philip Degardo (Chris Bailey) who is a philosophical bird-watcher and proprietor of a Mexican seaside resort for potential suicides. Among the doomed guests patronizing his inn are Myra Tibbets (Betsy Cox), a lonely violinist; Neil Warren (Jimmy Cordell), and his lonely acquaintance who was an author of children's books. Added to the puzzle are Mexican street urchins. The climax of the play sent the audience home wondering who the keeper of the birds really was. Top R: Chris Bailey explains how the lonely find a haven. Bottom L: Little John tries to steal Penny's (Michelle Adams) money; Bottom C.: "Empire State Building? Yes, sir. This also have I read about." Bottom R: Chris Bailey offers Miss Tibbets (Betsy Cox) a chair.

Students Show Off Their Talent

Penny Antics —

Middle School Play

At the Middle School play, the production Penny Antics by Penny Antics was presented. The play was written by Penny Antics and directed by Penny Antics. The play was a comedy about a boy who was a girl's father. The play was a success and the audience enjoyed it very much. The play was a success and the audience enjoyed it very much.

Sophomores Pull in Money for Burn Unit

On April 24 the Sophomore Class challenged the Senior class to a tug-a-war to make money for the Delta regional Burn Center. Each class pledged $25 and the loser had to double that and donate $50. The Seniors out-pulled the Sophomores, and then the other classes got into the act. The Juniors after accepting many challenges came out the victor. 1 Kevin Parker and David Farmer pulled for the Seniors. 2 Chris Burlford and Jimmy Crocker tugged for the Sophomores. 3. The Sophomores prepared for the battle (Opp pg) 1 The Seniors plot their victory. 2 The Freshmen waited for the whistle while some of the Sophomores looked on. 3 Bryant Rushing took a break. 4 The Juniors were victorious. 5 Barry Skelton and John Luxford pulled for the victory.

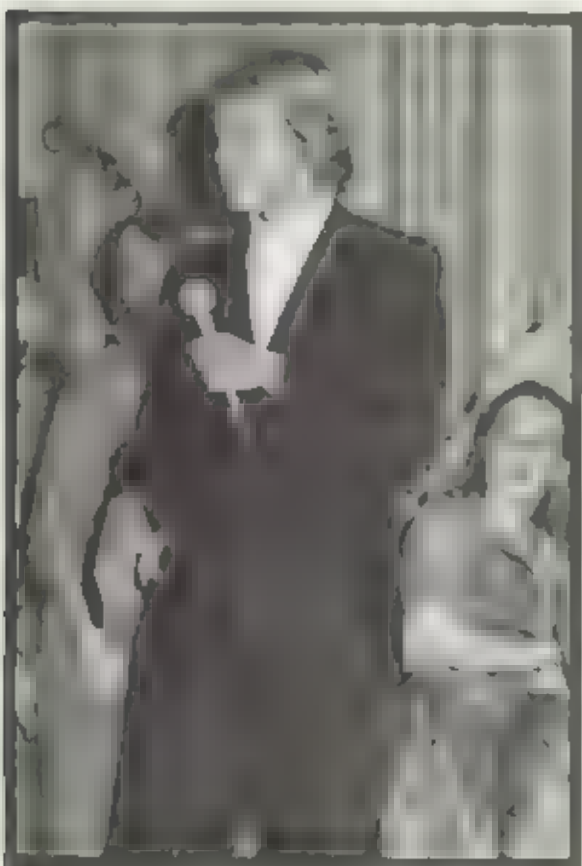

The Junior-Senior Hoe-Down

Free Fools in April

In April the Student Council sponsored an April Fools Dance. Many Fools showed up. 1. Mark Morse in disguise. 2. Our disc jockeys for the evening were Ben Allen and Wally Cook. 3. Fools Miriam Wells and Shannon Rusch get down at the dance. 4. Lance Wilson tries to be cool. 5. Co. McMahan and Pam Fuquay slow dance on knees. 6. Fools Farley Owens and Becky Virden take a break.

Football Features and Record Breakers

(Center) Bryant Rushing takes off the defense and picks an opening on some yardage. Bryant successfully acquired the longest kick off ever in a single game he ran 54 yards for a touch down against Jackson Prep. He also broke the record for the best kick off ever averaging 44 yards a season (110 yards). (Center page) Chad O'Leary, David Montgomery makes a quick pitch to Bryant Rushing while two City attempt a play against the season. Chad broke a record by passing this season. He said he is saving some energy for a single season. He was a top 60 of 40 yards a game.

(Center right) Joseph and Anthony Terracina are perfect examples of longtime traditions: whatever the coach says they do. Here they are found fighting, but who "knows?" The 1980 varsity football team finished with a 9-1 record, which tied the record of the 1979 team. The Generals started the season with an easy victory over Canton Academy, but like the years before, they found their only defeat in the game against Jackson Prep. The Generals cruised through the rest of the season fairly easy, allowing only fourteen more points to be placed on the scoreboard against them. This was definitely one of the greatest teams of Washington School.

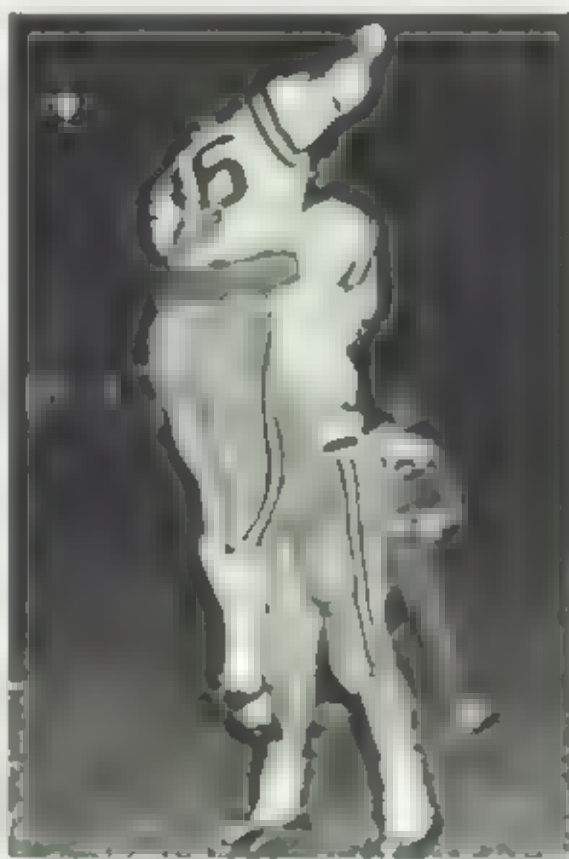

Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain," Dallas' "Doomsday Defense," and Denver's "Orange Crush" — these are the top performers of defense in pro football. The Generals are the top performers of defense in their conference. They were the threat to all teams that they played. The Generals stand out tremendously in their conference like these pro teams do in theirs.

A key player in the number one defense was Mark Muirhead who was named the defensive player of the year in the State, Mike Paul, David Rounsavall, Rob Love, and Glenn Laster also received the honor of being named All-State AAA players. Jeff Brantley also managed to set a new record for the Generals. He came up with 8 pass interceptions, the most any player has ever gotten. Mike Paul also had the best punting average for a season (38.3 yards).

Winning has become the standard for the Varsity Boys who this year earned a 26/4 record. Highly competitive, the Varsity Gens pulled for each other as if each lay up or patterned play would clinch the game. The accolades came too — victories in the Indianola classic, the Pillow Christmas tournament, and runner-up to North AAA Champions. In one or more of these, four of the starters were selected for the all-tournament teams. Selected for the All-Conference team were Shane Crofts, Rob Love, David Rounsavall, Mike Stradinger. For Shane, the laurels went on as he was selected to play in the Academy All Star Game. For his performance he was selected as MVP of the North Academy All Stars.

Accumulating honors galore, the team lost the State tourney to Prep by a 1-point margin. Yet with their ups and downs, we would be remiss not to mention the men on the bench — guiding, advising, firing his team on to more victories, Coach Rodney Brown who this year was selected as North AAA Coach of the Year. To you, team, we offer congratulations and thanks for the season.

Manager Wally A Tribute

Not many students give five years of service in a variety of ways to WS, but Wally Vanderford dedicated most of his athletic career to serving the Gens. Throughout his high school years, Wally served as trainer and head manager of three or four major sports each year, he was chosen manager for the North AAA All Star basketball team. A member of the "W" Club, Wally always dreamed of being a manager on the college level; this dream became a reality in Sept. of 1980 when he accepted a scholarship to MSU. He will be the freshman manager for the Bulldogs in Ron Pope's outstanding baseball program. Wally, WS salutes you and thanks you for all your hard work and dedication.

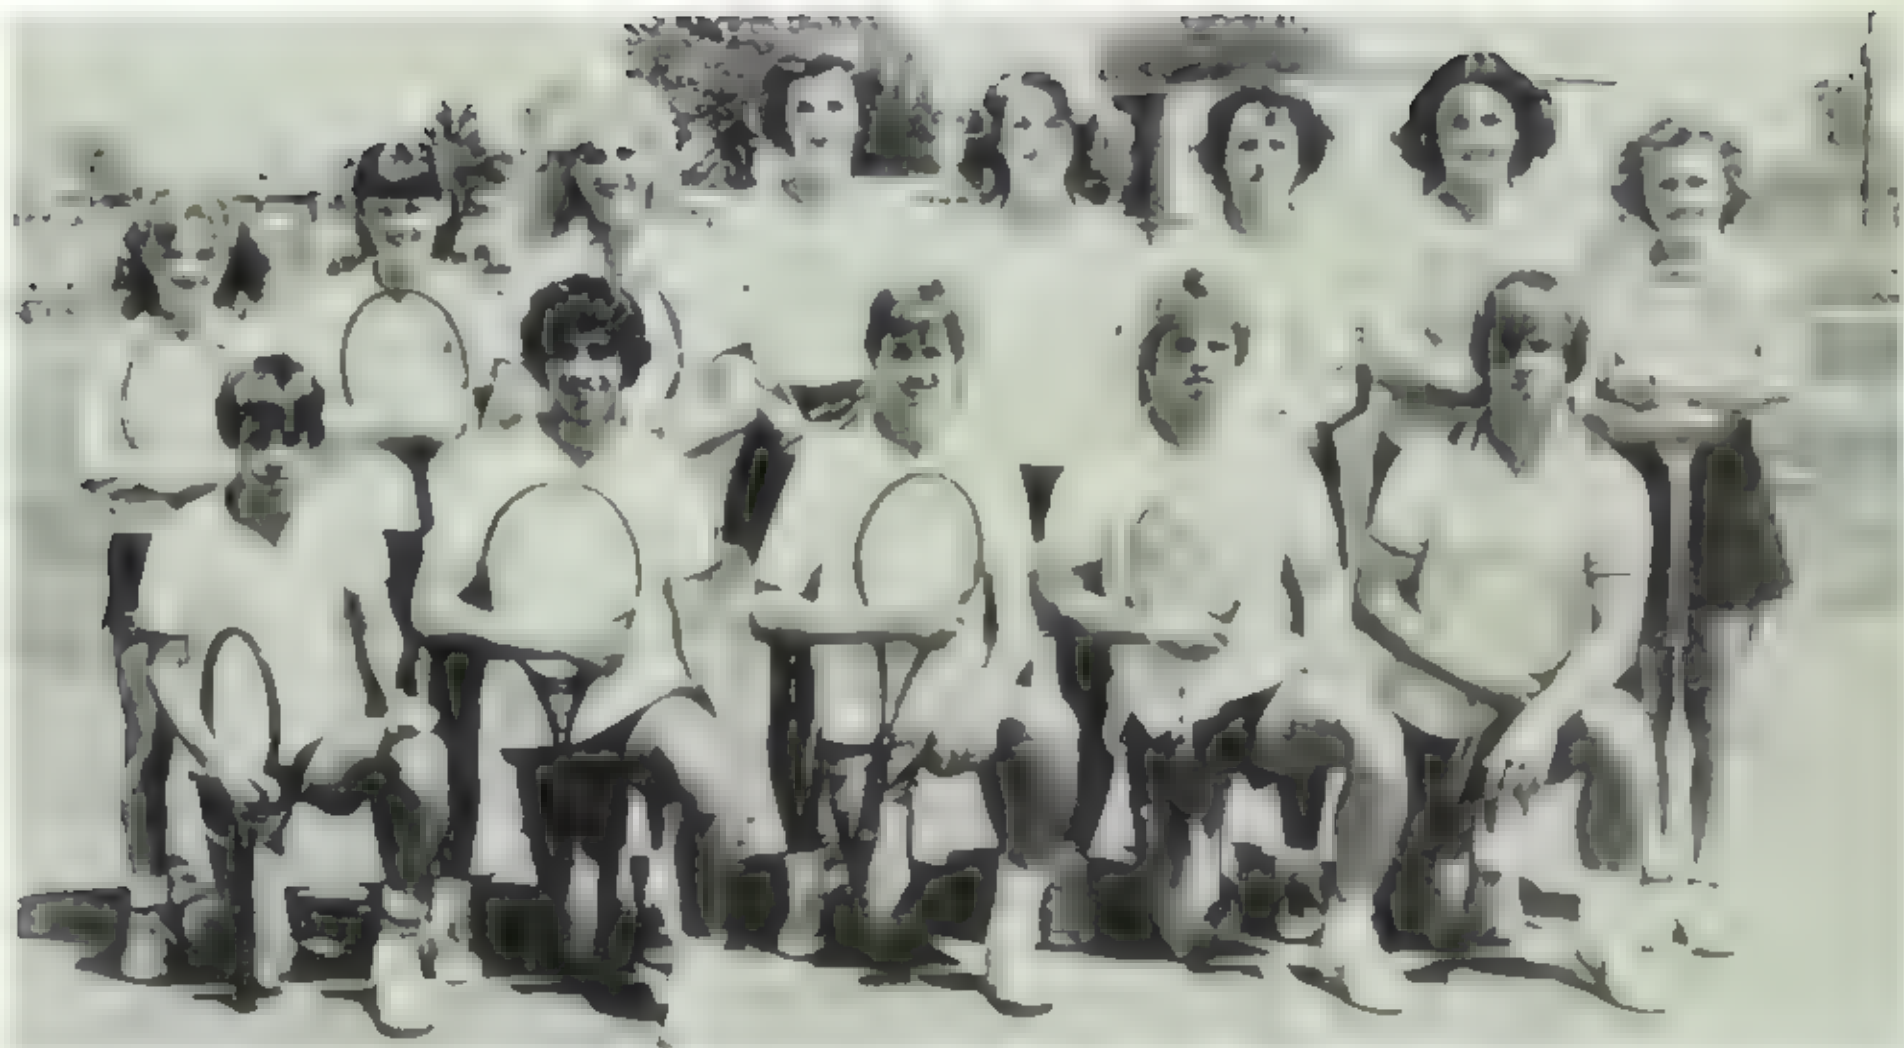

Love in a Dry Season

The WS Tennis Team drew no "loves" as they moved on to capture the North AAA Championship. They later became runners up to the State AAA title.

Jr. High Sports Profile

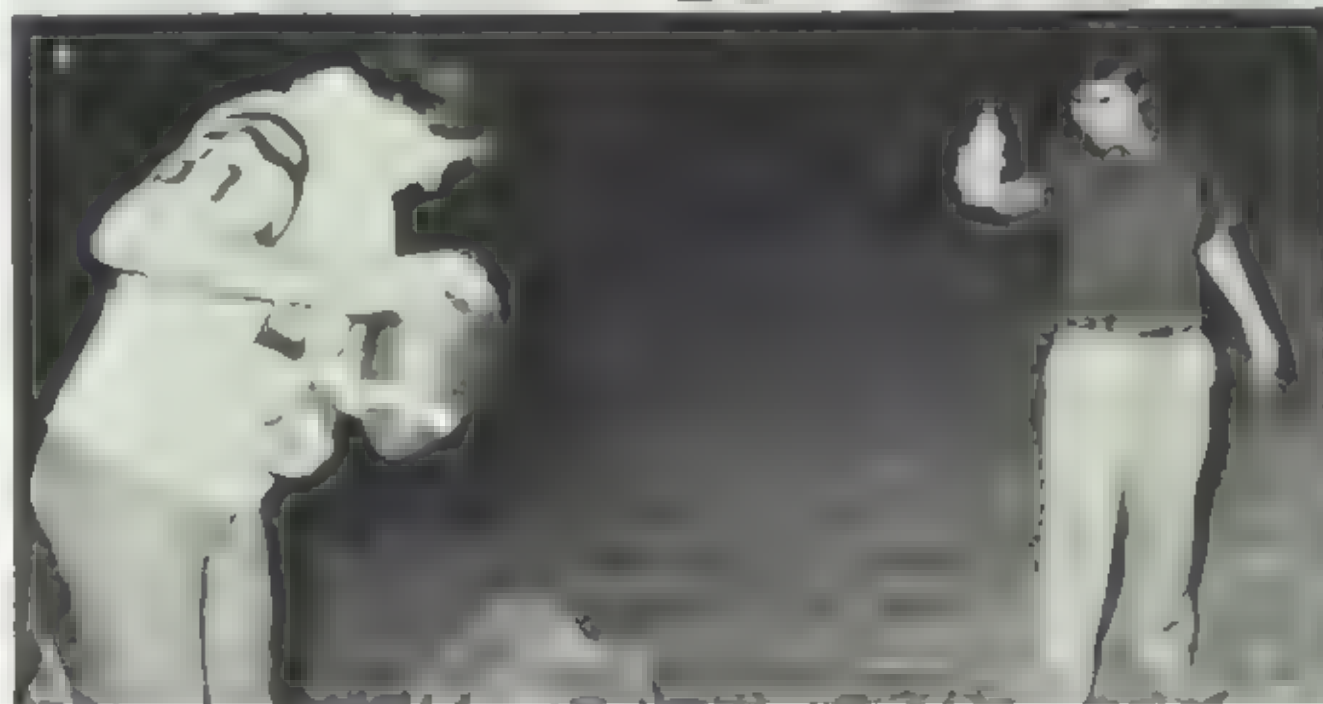

These candid shots reflect the many accomplishments of the Middle School Sports student. 1. Carla Tavenner hands the baton to Julia Hicks. 2. Jim Stradinger races for the finish line. 3. Lucy Nicholson starts her grueling race. 4. Tracks not all running, as Mary Margaret and Jamie take a big break to talk to Greg Shackelford.

Athletes in Action

1. Mike Portera receives that loving greeting from cheerleaders Kim Andrews and Mary A. Gammage. 2. Coach Coughlin drinks his secret strength potion. 3. The senior players walk out for the final coin toss of the season. 4. Steve Hughes makes the final sprint for the goal. 5. Basketball sponsor Mrs. Nancy Galatas pins a corsage on Player Elizabeth Douglas. 6. Quickdraw White blasts Browning Hall Vanderford. (With the last drop of squasher)

Big Boss of WS Mr. Larry Shurlds

Mr. Larry Shurlds, headmaster of Washington School, performs so many activities in addition to his role as headmaster. Pictured left Mr. Shurlds assumes his J.R. role throughout the day and yet has time to give blood for the Arkansas Bloodmobile. If not acting or directing on stage or teaching class, he is counselor to both faculty and students alike. A man of all seasons, a man with diverse roles, that's our headmaster, Larry Shurlds.

Associate Headmaster and Headmistress

Mr. Bill McGuire (right) acts as junior-senior principal and athletic director of WS. He can always be seen either making those entertaining morning announcements or directing some students in their daily activities. Mrs. Audrey Sidney (below) is diverse in her role as Associate Headmistress and elementary principal. She also advertises for the General Store in her spare time.

Middle School Principal and Elementary Administrative Aide

Mr. Marvin Lishman (left) supervises all middle school students and activities, as well as coaches junior high boys' and varsity girls' basketball. (Lower) Coach Rodney Brown, in addition to acting as elementary physical education director, also is elementary administrative aide. He directs the elementary activities with Mrs. Sidney.

M.Ed. — Ms. State U

"And What Do They Do Besides Teach?"

1 Mrs. Linda McGuire eats a horrible flavor of ketchup and shows her reaction. 2 Mrs. Wanda Dixon makes up her face and hair for her math picture. 3 Mrs. Nancy Galatas jogs for relaxation in her modern jogging attire. 4 Mrs. Sandra Hodges is practicing a song for her debut on stage. 5 Mrs. Iris Mitchell prepares her art work for her elementary art classes. 6 Mrs. Sonva Bixler acts out a dramatic role in Sykes Hall — the scene is from THE MIRACLE WORKER. These are just a few of the many pastime activities of our hardworking faculty at all times of the day.

1 Is Mike Fulton ready to strike Mrs Beach with the sword? 2 Sleeping on the job, Miss Elliott? 3. "It's that dandruff that keeps bothering me says Mrs Newton. 4. Poor Mrs Fratesi is having grading blues. 5 Mrs. Adams knows that Tiffany adores Halloween parties especially at 10:00 P.M. 6. Miss Henley prepares her post for YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

Taking Care of Problems

(Top left) Mr. Jimmy Flanagan, Maintenance Supervisor and Head Custodian of the school, enjoys a break at a faculty function. We could never function daily without our adorable janitorial staff. From left to right: Annie Calliot, Bobbie Jones, Pat Stanford, and Archie Jackson (left). (Top right) Mrs. Sue Matthews, head of the maids and janitorial staff, helps keep all of our maintenance needs supplied throughout the school day.

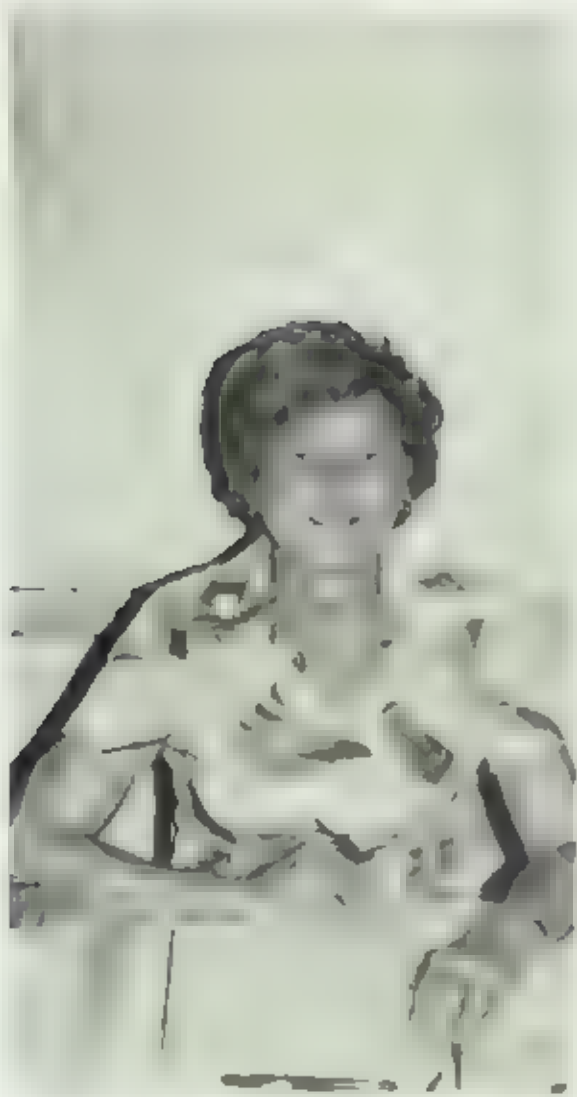

Our Lunchtime Leaders and Staff

What would we do without her diligent, hard-working lunch staff — (above) Mrs. Jimmy Harbin, Mrs. Rose Burns, and Mrs. Helen McDougal; they direct, plan, and coordinate all the grill activities so that our day can be nourishing, organized, and systematic for all the students. (Right) These ladies help our staff — Juanita Griffin, Dorothy Golden, and Loretta Taylor

A Fond Remembrance — Mrs. Connie Stokes

Time passes so quickly for a student during his twelve years of education. A very special person who touched so many elementary and middle school students came to WS in 1970. Connie Stokes became an integral part of every phase of student activity. One could always see her in faculty-student basketball games, dressing up for tacky day, wearing unusual hats and coats for special WS events, and always supporting every school function. She had a zest for life and for people. A smile always on her face, a tall, soft-spoken, attractive teacher, Connie brightened all of our lives with her cheerful, optimistic outlook. When she was so bedridden with cancer, she never gave up hope that she would always be a part of the WS faculty. Connie Stokes remains with us always in spirit. Thank you Mrs. Stokes, for giving us nine years of knowing you in your teaching career.

 to learn in first grade is to zipper up my coat
 to get on the maypole
 to take a spelling test
 to find my carpool,
 to open my milk carton
 to add numbers
 to jump rope in P.E.
 to write letters that
 stay on the lines
 to be quiet
 to take time tests and

Some strange people attended the Halloween Dance sponsored by the Student Council. For example, we see Jim Stradinger talking nonchalantly to Dary Pironi with a visitor. Who is that masked creature in tennis shoes?

There are also some strange happenings periodically in the grill. Why is Stacy Collins choking Martin Walker from 3-C? Martin doesn't seem to mind, does he? Maybe Stacy is on grill patrol.

Middle School Candids

1. Tammy Evans enjoys her jumping routine in P.E. 2. Brad Allen seems bored by his friends' news — Cindy Williams and Pam Taylor. 3. Mrs. Walker (extreme right) guards her class and other sixth graders during lunch. 4. Cynda Robinson waits in line to pay for her noonday lunch in the grill. These candids show a variety of activities that the middle school is involved in at WS.

1 Grant Coblentz and Joe Stralinger are ready for lunch 2 Poor little Dena Fuquay can't make up her mind about whether to take math or to take art or really whether to just go home and think about it 3 Tammy Evans, Shannon Rayburn, Lisa Howard, Cherie Suarez, Lori Horszowski, Stephanie Lynchard, Marion McBride, Martha Nunnery, and Lon Evans put on those smiles for the camera 4 Mr. Hovis and Mr. Koonce seem to be having an intriguing conversation with Mr. Bird

Always on Top of Things

High School Class Candid

Life at Washington School is a variation of many activities. 1. Denise Anthony waits to serve a customer at one of the basketball games which the Junior class sponsors the snack bar. 2. At the Halloween Masquerade dance Rob Tate appeared in his common fog coat. 3. Garry Owens attended the same dance in an unusual but flashy dress. 4. And of course Rodney Brantley and John Myers share one of the many social jokes told in the grill. Coach Grubb seems to be entertained by these clowns.

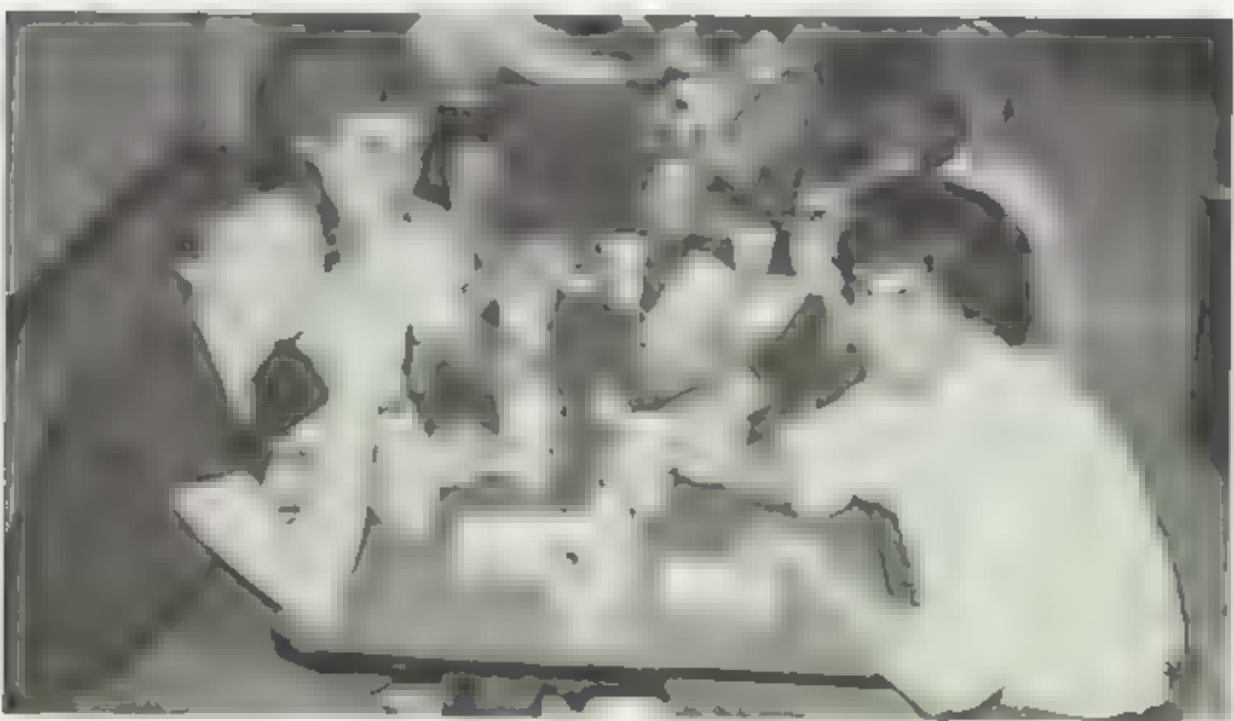

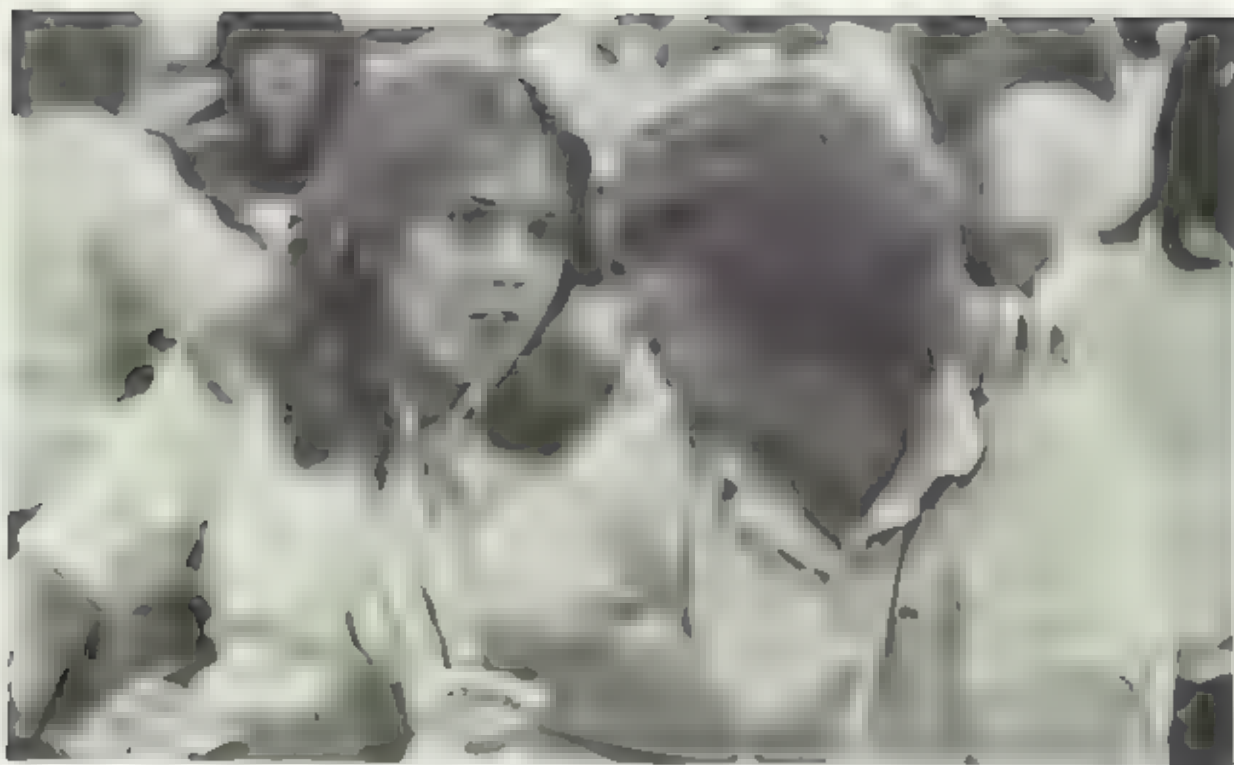

1 Jane Anna Dyer displays her "colorful costume for the Halloween Masquerade dance 2 No one knows what Shannon Ruscoe meant by this call 3 Miss Margaret Kazan tries to make Tracy Key understand, but Tracy just isn't interested 4 Patricia Greer and Cynthia Thomas cure the munchies" during break 5 Meg McGuire finally expresses her true talent in life as Jim Stradinger looks on

1 Clint Horn lets his natural beauty come through. 2 Robert Dean can't remember what class is next. 3 Miriam Wells gained a few pounds for the dance. 4. A quick glance outside gives Pam Helly the motivation to make it through the rest of the day. 5 Maggie Solomon displays another one of her many talents.

1 Poor Lolly! She has to explain everything to Mark Muirhead 2 Stacy Solomon and Carrie Vickery seem perplexed over a problem they're having with the yearbook 3 Jeff Fernandez and Rob Tate look a little disturbed at having their break interrupted 4 Lisa Livingston enjoys her daily gossip session with Paula Pokon 5 Martha Hamilton is intense on getting her camera fixed. She'd never go anywhere without it

"Everybody Look Around

1 "I actually made it to the top!"
2 "What's so funny, Trudy and Lori?"
3 "Just the irony, Kevin." 4 "So
5 I'll see you later, 'cause I still
6 need a catnip security right, Kevin."
7 "Bye, Kevin, or that hot date."
8 Lisa "Aren't they a sweet couple?"
9 "D. Robertson relaxes a forgiving blood to the Red Cross."

"Thank You, World We Always Knew That We'd Be Free Somehow!"

1. Jackson went all her dirt for country.
2. You took beauty, Aisa. (D) Dear

"Little Things"

"Happiness lies in the little things
Like seeing children at play,
The brilliant dawn and sunset fair,
Beginning and ending of day.

It lies in enjoyment of hearing sounds of wind and the songbirds gay,
Happiness can be had for each one,
Enjoying small things everyday.

So many still search for happiness
But gain it they never can,
They search in vain for wealth and fame
And far through the future scan,

While happiness lies close to their reach,
If they only would grasp it tight,
For happiness lies in the little things
God places within our sight."

Autographs

Autographs

An aerial photograph of a large stadium, likely the University of California, Berkeley, taken from a high angle. The stadium is filled with spectators, and the field is visible. Handwritten notes in blue ink are scattered across the image, including "Sally", "Should be with only 10-15", "made was fun, only 10-15", "section 10-15", "terribly", "unbearable", "total", "10-15", "biology", "best", "Candy", and "10-15". The notes are written in a cursive, handwritten style. The stadium is surrounded by parking lots and other buildings. The overall tone of the image is sepia, suggesting it is an old photograph.
